

❖ Services if a child aged 3-5 is eligible for special education:

- Communication Preschool (Russell) for students who show significant delay in language or articulation skills, but no other developmental concerns; taught by licensed SLP/certificated teacher
- Developmental Preschool (Edgerton) for students who show significant developmental delay(s); taught by licensed, certificated teachers with special education degrees/endorsements
- Areas of special education service: adapted physical education, assistive technology, Braille instruction, Career/Vocational (for high-school aged-students), Communication, Math, Reading Self-Help/Independence, Sensory-Motor, Social/Emotional/Behavioral, Speech/Language, Transition (for students aged 14 and older), Travel Training, Written Expression
- Related Services: primarily Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Speech/Language Therapy; sometimes receive psychological assistance from school psychologist, more specific therapies might include visual training, orientation and mobility, audiology, assistive technology, depending on areas of eligibility/need

PLEASE REMEMBER:

Early Intervention Services are NOT Kindergarten screening programs.

*Significant concerns should be referred;

*Minor academic/behavioral/parent-training-type concerns should not be referred